Held at the Sofitel City Centre on 17 May 2024 (Friday), members of the Singapore Reinsurers' Association (SRA) convened its Annual General Meeting (AGM), spotlighting key highlights from 2023, our strategic focus for 2024 as well as updates on the preparation for the upcoming 20th Singapore International Reinsurance Conference (SIRC) happening from 4 to 7 November 2024.

Momentum in Every Direction: Chair Opening Remarks

- In his opening address, SRA Chair Marc Haushofer reflected on the association's positive trajectory ahead. As the SRA broadens its horizons, Marc underscored the continued importance of the association's role not only in Singapore but also in the region.
- Output Director, Underpinned by the strong foundation established by previous leadership and the transition of a new Executive Director, the SRA is well poised to deepen engagements with its members and advance the industry's interests. Last year's 19th SIRC was just one of the testaments to this growing momentum.
- Embodying SRA's forward-looking values and continuous commitment, Marc officially unveiled the new SRA logo and website. These updates symbolise the association's elevated vision to continue empowering the (re)insurance industry and positively shape it against a rapidly changing global landscape.

"As we confront the challenges of this dynamic world, we remain committed to fostering meaningful dialogues and connections to uphold the relevance of our industry.

In the coming year, I am confident that we will continue bringing value to our members, while amplifying our impact through a broadened network."

Marc Haushofer, SRA Chair

In Future Tense: 2024 and Beyond

As we navigate the future, our focus remains on:

Revolutionising Reinsurance

Embrace the pressing challenges ahead and steer the industry to forge new paths amid these changing times. Strengthen Singapore's position as a reinsurance hub within the region by shaping conversations to ensure that it remains robust and ahead of the curve.

Talent Acquisition and Development

Foster a robust talent pool equipped with future-ready expertise such as AI and other relevant fields. Initiate outreach programs to generate interest and attract skilled individuals to the reinsurance industry, ensuring a continuous influx of talent to support future growth and innovation.

Strategic Partnerships

Forge strategic alliances with industry players and bodies to facilitate knowledge exchange and collaboration. This can be done through leveraging collective expertise and insight, and establishing mutually beneficial partnerships that drive industry advancement to foster a thriving ecosystem for (re)insurance in Singapore and beyond.

A Symbol of Global Impact:

SRA's New Logo and Look

Our refreshed logo represents a bold step forward, symbolising our active engagement in Asia and our extensive reach worldwide.

The red angular element signifies our strategic anchor identity in Singapore, well-positioned and primed for progress in the regional reinsurance landscape.

Presented together, this visual ensemble is a reflection of our values and identity, and an embodiment of our dedication to global outreach, networking excellence and assurance in the reinsurance industry.

Wrapping Up

The AGM concluded on a sociable note with a convivial 'Drinks-n-Bites' breakout session that encouraged informal conversations and camaraderie amongst all the members present.
